

INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Robber touched Samuel Barnett, in his drug store, 1922 W. Taylor st., for $15.

Two men attempted to hold up grocery of H. J. Gessler, 6001 S. Carpenter st. He yelled for help. Men fled.

Loot worth $500 taken from Morris Feldman's tailor shop, 623 N. State st.

Auto containing two men and two well-dressed women struck lamp post at W. Jackson and S. Oakley blvds. No one hurt. Refused to give names. Machine wrecked.

James Sherin, 17, arrested on suspicion of being one of those who held up Jacob Goldman in his cigar store Sunday.

Three masked men entered restaurant of James Durkin, 16 N. 40th av. Several shots fired. Escaped without loot. No one hurt.

Two elevated trains crashed at Fifth av. and Washington st. 100 passengers in panic. More than a dozen slightly hurt.

Walter Voight, 21, member of life-saving corps, dead. Appendicitis.

Carmelia Scherale, 20, 628 W. 25th st., struck by car. Slightly injured.

"If money spent here for useless presents during the holiday season was diverted to the poor and unfortunate, there would be joy in every home on Christmas morning."—President A. A. McCormick of the County Board.

Harry West, 70, 27 W. Indiana ave, Civil war vet., froze to death. Too proud to beg; too honest to steal.

B. & O. Ry. bridge at S. Chicago caught fire today. Small loss. Police investigating.

H. P. Roe, only male U. of C. senior unable to raise mustache. Students threw him into a cold swimming tank. Warrants out for 12 classmates.

Barn of Engle Schrank, 2030 W. Division st., destroyed by fire. 46 horses of W. Wolf suffocated. $100 loss in barn.

Bomb exploded on third floor rear porch of W. D. Troutman, 3823-25 Wilcox av. J. L. Reynolds, 2nd., small damage. Believed spite work.

James Helder, 10, 1210 W. 63rd st., stole ride on Center av. work car. Fell. Killed.

Ben Segall re-elected commander of W. S. Hancock post of Illinois G. A. R.

W. T. Ward and E. C. Rankin, examiners for Dept. of Justice, finished investigation of conditions in U. S. marshal's office. Won't talk.

Ann Davies, local actress, and Herman Myers, 30, Milwaukee, married at New Castle, Del.

District Attorney J. H. Wilkerson will probably ask indictment six high officials of N. Y. C. Ry. O'Gara Coal Co. rebate case.

35 union billposters fired by down-town theaters to cut expenses.

17 commanding officers of police department met to discuss forming of an organization of